

How to Join a b.r – Conference Call

Who can join a conference call and which are the costs?

You can join our conference call system, if you use a key-operated telephone or a mobile phone. It is possible to dial in from fixed-line networks, mobile phones and from abroad (only in few cases foreign network operators block access to German special call numbers). Nearly all hotels allow to use this number, although often with surcharges. From a German fixed line telephone the costs for taking part in the conference call is 9 cent per started minute. Calls from mobile phones or from abroad can be subject to a surcharge by your network operator. The conference call will be billed on your standard telephone invoice.

How can I join a conference call?

We will invite you to a conference call. With this invitation you will receive the date and the time of the conference call, a six-digit conference room number and a four-digit PIN.

- 1.) Dial the telephone number 01803-665511 (from abroad +49-1803-665511) at the agreed time.
- 2.) Push ① on your telephone when requested and then type in the six-digit conference room number.
- 3.) Type in the four-digit PIN when requested.
- 4.) You are now in the conference room. Wait for the other participants.
- 5.) To leave the conference call, just put down the phone. You can return to the conference room at any time according to steps 1. to 4.
